

A Haverhill Community Discussion on SCHOOL SUCCESS

Wednesday, April 26 at 7PM • Hunking Middle School • Free to Attend

Come learn about:

- How our public schools are performing based on state metrics
- What other school districts are doing to help improve school performance and student outcomes
- What we can do as a community to "reach higher" and help our schools and children succeed

Featured experts:

Economist Thomas Grannemann will speak on measures of Haverhill school performance and spending from his website, BenchmarkHaverhillSchools.com.

Benjamin Forman, Research Director of MassINC (MassINC.org), will share examples of successful strategies that are being advanced in other cities across the Commonwealth to help improve school performance.

Panel Discussion:

Improving Haverhill Schools: Objectives, Challenges, and Action Steps
Lane Glenn, President of NECC, will moderate a panel including Haverhill School Committee President Gail Sullivan, Haverhill City Council President John Michitson and Dena Papanikolaou, a Haverhill resident, parent, and legal advocate. Mayor James Fiorentini has also been invited to participate on the panel.

Servicios de traducción al español estarán disponibles en el evento.

Haverhill Education
Foundation

More information and free registration at: bit.ly/ReachHigherHaverhill