Basic Rights Training

The Haverhill, Massachusetts Special Education Parent Advisory Council (SEPAC) will kick off the 2018-2019 school year on Tuesday, October 30, 2018, at 6 PM in the Haverhill High School library with a basic rights workshop and a welcome event for parents, guardians, and caregivers.

Presenter: Holly Lynch, Esq.

Attorney Holly Lynch, who is a special education lawyer, former chairperson of the North Andover SEPAC, and a current member of the North Andover School Committee, graciously agreed to provide the training pro bono to the Haverhill SEPAC.

Whether you're new to special education or have been involved for a while, this workshop is for you. This presentation provides an introduction to your rights as parents, guardians, and caregivers of children with special needs under state and federal laws.
